

Big6 Test

- 1) Which step of the Big6 allows you to make sure you know exactly what you need to do?
    - a) Task Definition
    - b) Information Seeking Strategies
    - c) Location and Access
    - d) Use of Information
    - e) Synthesis
    - f) Evaluation

  - 2) Use of Information is where you create your new product.
    - a) True
    - b) False

  - 3) Evaluation means evaluating both the [process] and the [product].

  - 4) Give an example of something that would be done in the Location and access step.
Finding sources in the library.
Using text features to locate info in the source.

  - 5) d Use of Information
  - 6) a Synthesis
  - 7) c Task Definition
  - 8) b Location and Access
  - 9) e Evaluation
  - 10) f Information Seeking Strategies
  - a) Creating a new product
  - b) Finding information source and using them appropriately
  - c) Determine final product and questions to answer
  - d) Taking Notes
  - e) Comparing the product to a rubric
  - f) Determining the best sources (brainstorming)
-
- 11) Joe is using the index of a book to determine if it contains info on shark habitats. What step is he using?
  - a) Task Definition
  - b) Information Seeking Strategies
  - c) Location and Access
-
- 12) The rough draft is created during the Use of Information step.
  - a) True
  - b) False

13) A list of sources is created in the Information Seeking Strategies step.

a) True

b) False

14) After completing the final product what must students do?

Evaluate the product and process to determine if they completed all necessary steps and determine what could be done differently next time.

15) Sam was evaluating his process. He realized he had to go to the computer repeatedly to look for sources while creating his final product. What step did he likely neglect?

a) Location and Access

b) Information Seeking Strategies

c) Task Definition